Chapter 1 by Maria Vargas

Many people think that Fairy Tales are just for children and that when people get to the age of 10 and up they think they are too old for fairy tales, but they didn't know that fairy tales help kids to understand consequences or give them passion. So, there was a girl that is 12 years old and she believes in magic because she knew that magic had a special place in her heart. So, one day she went to Mexico, next to her house in Mexico there was a bridge, her parents told her that over that place it was very dangerous because there was a lot of dangerous animals and bad people, but she knew that over that bridge there was something special, so disobey her parents order and she went to see, and she found herself in a beautiful place with waterfalls down a rainbow, gardens, lakes, mountains, animals, flowers, trees, and beautiful fairy that transform the girl's jeans and shirt into a beautiful white dress with flowers design, with some beautiful white shoes with flowers design, and with a beautiful flowers crown. She meet a lot of fairy tales' characters, but she knew that she belong in her world, and she didn't want to worry her parents, so she had to come back, but she knew that she could come back, she also realize that weeks pass in the fairy tales world, and only minutes pass in her world.
